

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. To participate in any activity, members must not be under 18 years old. Otherwise, and as long as it is allowed by the regulation, they are able to participate either accompanied by their parent or by submitting a written statement.
2. The unconditional acceptance of: the club's charter, the rules of procedure and the individual terms and conditions for each activity.
3. Respect and obedience to the leading member of the activity
4. Members that are under the influence of substances, alcohol etc, which in any way reduce perception, reflexes and generally the necessary skills required for participation in the activity.
5. The leader of the activity or partner may not allow a member, who he considers unable to respond to the specific activity he organizes, to join in for any reason, always taking the safety of both the member and the whole team into consideration.
6. With the participation of the member he declares and guarantees that he is physically and in any other way capable of participating in the activity and that he will comply at all times with the applicable rules and regulations of the team and the orders and instructions of the leader of the activity.
7. Inappropriate member behavior towards the leader or other member of the group will be penalized according to Article 9 of the club's charter.
8. Prospective members are required to affirm their condition and to provide a medical certificate certifying their suitability for the participation in the activities of the Association.
9. Any member involved in activities should inform the leader of health problems that they may have as well as about medicines that they have to use or should bring with them.
10. The Association is not responsible for any losses or additional costs resulting from changes, delays or cancellations of planned activities.
11. The leader reserves the right to modify or cancel any activity due to adverse weather conditions.
12. The Association through its board reserves the right to change these Terms and Conditions at any time without notifying members. Any future activity you may take is subject to the terms and conditions applicable to the activity and we strongly recommend that you read carefully all terms and conditions each time you take an activity as this link will remain active and updated at any time.
13. In the event of future inconsistency with the terms and conditions of participation, the member is entitled according to Article 10 of the Charter to withdraw.
14. Any decision on any exemption from the aforementioned terms will be made only by decision of the Board of Directors as appropriate.